As a parent, it's only natural to want to give your baby the very best start in life, and with Natures Purest that's exactly what you are doing. The 100 percent organically grown, naturally coloured cotton jersey used in the Natures Purest nursery collection is produced without the use of dyes, pesticides or chemicals. The cotton buds used in Natures Purest's products are grown in natural shades of cream, brown and green, and are then processed without dyes or harmful chemicals, to make the most wonderful natural and pure fabrics – perfect for your newborn baby.
